SPLENDID ÆOLICHORDS.—Just received from Boston two of those beautiful solichords, or improved reolian pianofortes, which, for sweetness of tone, power, and variety of combinations, far surpass any instruments heretofore offered for sale in America or in Europe, where they have been so highly eulogized by Benedict, Horncastle, and Thalberg, the greatest musicians of the age. The editor of the Boston Morning Chronicle says: "These instruments have a great variety of powers. We heard one of them play the trumpet, and then the bagpipe, and then the swolian barp, and then, by a stop, it becomes a pianoforte, and by another, a simple seraphine, and by the forte pedal, a full-toned organ. For sale at the store of the subscriber, only agent for the District of Columbia, where a copy of the pianoforte journal, containing numerous testimonnals of the highest character, may be obtained gratis.

Dec. 5—law4w DR. SWAYNE'S COMPOUND SIRUP

OF WILD CHERRY,

or OF WILD CHERRY.

The great remedy for consumption, colds, coughs, spitting of blood, bronchitis, difficulty of breathing, asthma, pain in the side and breast, whooping-cough, croup, and all diseases of the liver and lungs, broken constitution, &c.

THE above is the original and only genuine preparation from this valuable tree, and has won its way to public favor by its unparalleled success in curing all diseases of the lungs, notwithstanding the many articles prepared by persons who have no knowledge of the science of medicine, in theory or practice; and some, more readily to deceive the unsuspecting, use a part of the name of the original preparation, such as "balsam of wild cherry," "Phemix balsam of wild cherry," "Phemix balsam of wild cherry, and camfrey," &c.—all sprung up with a mercenary view, after Dr. Swayne's compound sirup of wild cherry had won a reputation in the healing art never to be forgotten by many a once cheerless fireside. Therefore the public should be on their guard, and purchase none but the original preparation, which is daily performing such astonishing cures in pulmonary complaints, after all remedies had failed, and the patients given up as hopeless. Thousands of certificates might be published, which would astonish credulity itself; but it is deemed unnecessary. Below we publish a few of the names of persons who have been cured by this wonderful remedy:

Robert Glenn, steward of the almshouse near is deemed unnecessary. Below we publish a few of the names of persons who have been cured by this wonderful remedy:

Robert Glenn, steward of the almshouse near Frankford, testifies to the efficacy of Dr. Swayne's compound sirup of wild cherry, in curing Valentine Chapman, one of the most aggravated cases of diseased lungs which has ever been placed upon record, after every other remedy had failed, and his physician had given him up as incurable.
Mrs. Brown, corner of Second street and Germantown road, Philadelphia, effectually cured of diseased lungs and the symptoms of incipient consumption, by using four bottles of Dr. Swayne's compound sirup of wild cherry.
R. Jackson, D. D., formerly pastor of the first Presbyterian church, New York, testifies to the efficacy of Dr. Swayne's compound sirup of wild cherry, and recommends it to the heads of families, having witnessed its wonderful effect in more than one hundred cases, in relieving children of every obstimate complaint, such as coughing, wheezing, choking of phlegm, asthmatic attacks, &c.

Abraham Skinner, Crawford county, Pennsylvania, cured of a protracted cough, pain in the side and becast. &c. after being reduced to a weer skele.

nia, cured of a protracted cough, pain in the sid and breast, &c., after being reduced to a mere skele and breast, &c., after being reduced to a mere skeleton.

James Osburn, Washington, Pennsylvania, cured of consumption and bleeding of the lungs, after being given up by several eminent physicians, and having used most of the patent medicines.

This medicine, in all cases, gives immediate relief, and is a safe, pleasant, and effectual remedy, and worth a trial from the most skeptical.

IP-Prepared only by Dr. Swayne, north corner of Eighth and Race streets, Philadelphia, where all orders must be addressed.
